TIME STANDARD SUMMARY REPORT

The purpose of this report is to provide the number of cases and referrals that are in compliance, as well as non compliance, according to the time standard rules for Delinquency and Protection cases. Furthermore, this report provides a breakdown of the level of compliance with time standards for milestones within a case's timeline (detention, intake, petition, etc.). As delinquency and protection cases follow different timelines, their information is presented in separate charts on this report.

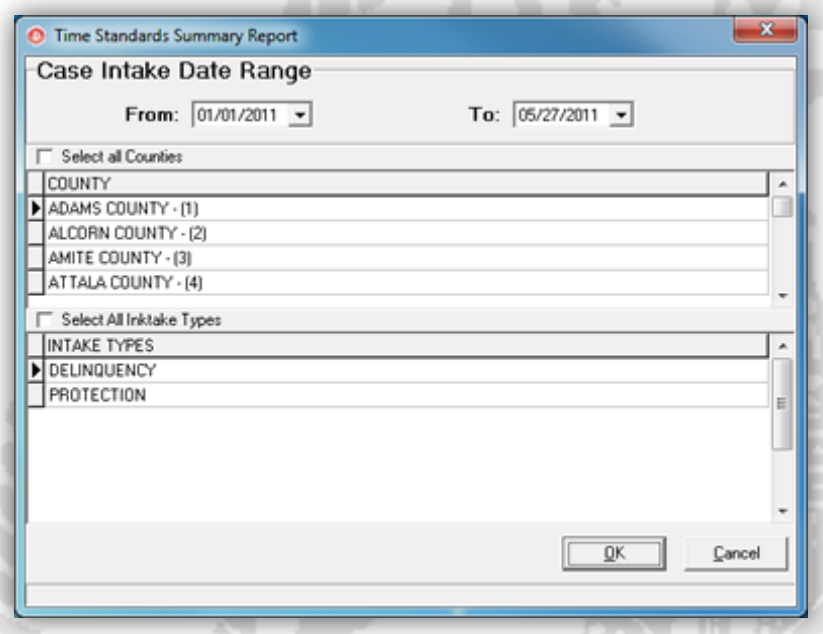

FIGURE 1

The Time Standard Summary report can be run for a specific date range (based on the Case Intake Date) and intake type (Figure 1). If multiple counties are selected, county information will be displayed two (2) counties per page. A Report Total section will be displayed on the last page of the report. This section contains total information for all counties selected in the report. Courts can only see reports for the county or districts in which they have jurisdiction.

REPORT BREAKDOWN

The Time Standards Summary Report is broken down into three (3) sections: case total information for the court, Delinquency Cases, and Protection Cases. Below, this document will attempt to breakdown and describe each section in detail.

CASE TOTAL INFORMATION

The first section (Figure 2) displays subtotal and total information for the selected court. This information is broken down according to the Case Type.

	Delinquency	Protection	Total
Cases With Referrals	143	50	193
Cases Without Referrals*	9	3	12
Referrals	190	55	245

*These cases are counted as Non Compliant.

Delinquency Column (Figure 2, red highlight)
This column displays only Delinquency case information. The Cases With Referrals row displays the total number of Delinquency cases that contain referrals for the time period selected. The Cases Without Referrals row displays the number of Delinquency cases that do not have referrals entered. These cases are automatically considered non compliant. The Referrals row displays the total number of Delinquency referrals for the selected time period. This number may be higher than the Case total due to multiple referrals in some cases.

Protection Column (Figure 2, blue highlight)
This column displays only Protection case information. The Cases With Referrals row displays the total number of Protection cases for the time period selected. The Cases Without Referrals row displays the number of Protection cases that do not have referrals entered. These cases are automatically considered non compliant. The Referrals row displays the total number of Protection referrals for the selected time period. This number may be higher than the Case total due to multiple referrals in some cases.

Total Column (Figure 2, purple highlight)
This column displays totals for both Delinquency and Protection columns.

DELINQUENCY CASES

Delinquency Cases	Out of 152 Cases (2 Custody)	Out of 190 Referrals	Out of 142 Formal Referrals		Out of 93 Adjudicated Referrals

[i] §43-21-301(3)
The judge or his designee may issue an order to a law enforcement officer, the Department of Human Services, or any suitable person to take a child into custody for a period not longer than forty-eight (48) hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and statutory state holidays if it appears that there is probable cause to believe that:

(a) The child is within the jurisdiction of the court; and

(b) Custody is necessary; custody shall be deemed necessary:

(i) When a child is endangered or any person would be endangered by the child; or

(ii) To insure the child's attendance in court at such time as required; or

(iii) When a parent, guardian or custodian is not available to provide for the care and supervision of the child; and

(c) There is no reasonable alternative to custody.

[ii] §43-21-301(6)(a)
No child who has been accused or adjudicated of any offense that would not be a crime if committed by an adult shall be placed in an adult jail or lockup. An accused status offender shall not be held in secure detention longer than twenty-four (24) hours prior to and twenty-four (24) hours after an initial court appearance, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and statutory state holidays, except under the following circumstances: a status offender may be held in secure detention for violating a valid court order pursuant to the criteria as established by the federal Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 2002, and any subsequent amendments thereto, and out-of-state runaways may be detained pending return to their home state.

[iii] §43-21-451
All proceedings seeking an adjudication that a child is a delinquent child, a child in need of supervision, a neglected child or an abused child shall be initiated by the filing of a petition. Upon authorization of the youth court, the petition shall be drafted and filed by the youth court prosecutor unless the youth court has designated some other person to draft and file the petition. The petition shall be filed within five (5) days from the date of a detention hearing or shelter hearing continuing custody. Unless another period of time is authorized by the youth court or its designee, in noncustody cases the petition shall be filed within ten (10) days of the court order authorizing the filing of a petition. The court may, in its discretion, dismiss the petition for failure to comply with the time schedule contained herein.

[iv] §43-21-551(2)
If the child is in detention, the hearing shall be held as soon as possible but not later than twenty-one (21) days after the child is first detained by the youth court unless the hearing be postponed:

(a) upon motion of the child;

(b) where process cannot be completed; or

(c) upon a judicial finding that a material witness is not presently available. If the adjudicatory hearing is not held or postponed for the aforesaid reasons, the child may be released from detention.

[v] §43-21-551(1)
Unless the hearing is continued upon a showing of good cause or the person who is a subject to the cause has admitted the allegations of the petition, an adjudicatory hearing shall be held within ninety (90) days after the filing of the petition to determine whether there is legally sufficient evidence to find that the child is a delinquent child, a child in need of supervision, a neglected child or an abused child. If the adjudicatory hearing is not held within the ninety (90) days, the petition shall be dismissed with prejudice.

[vi] §43-21-601(2)
If the child has been taken into custody, a disposition hearing shall be held within fourteen (14) days after the adjudicatory hearing unless good cause be shown for postponement.

[vii] 45 C.F.R. § 1356.21 (2008)
(b) Reasonable efforts determination. . . .
(1) Judicial determination of reasonable efforts to prevent a child's removal from the home.
(i) When a child is removed from his/her home, the judicial determination as to whether reasonable efforts were made, or were not required to prevent the removal, in accordance with paragraph (b)(3) of this section, must be made no later than 60 days from the date the child is removed from the home pursuant to paragraph (k)(1)(ii) of this section.
(ii) If the determination concerning reasonable efforts to prevent the removal is not made as specified in paragraph (b)(1)(i) of this section, the child is not eligible under the title IV-E foster care maintenance payments program for the duration of that stay in foster care.

[viii] §43-21-551(3)
If the child is held in shelter, the hearing shall be held as soon as possible but not later than thirty (30) days after the child is first taken into custody unless the hearing is postponed:

(a) upon motion of the child;

(b) where process cannot be completed; or

(c) upon a judicial finding that a material witness is not presently available. If the adjudicatory hearing is not held or postponed for the aforesaid reasons, the child may be released from shelter.

If the child has been taken into custody, a disposition hearing shall be held within fourteen (14) days after the adjudicatory hearing unless good cause be shown for postponement.
