

NOTICE OF POSITION AVAILABLE

(posted 9/12/2022)

Applications Development and Support II

The Mississippi Supreme Court is seeking a web developer.

This is a salaried position with insurance, retirement, and other state employee benefits. The Mississippi Supreme Court is an equal opportunity employer.

The primary responsibility of this position is to design, develop, implement, maintain, and support web applications using PHP, SQL, HTML, CSS, and JavaScript.

Qualified persons should email their resume by September 30, 2022 to:

Daryl L. Wingo
Director of Information Technology
Mississippi Supreme Court
Gartin Justice Building
450 High Street
Jackson, MS 39201
dwingo@courts.ms.gov
(601) 359-3709

Applications Development and Support II

Responsibilities

- Design, develop, implement, maintain, and support web applications using PHP, SQL, HTML, CSS, and JavaScript

Requirements

- 1-2 years+ web backend development experience with PHP, or equivalent experience in JavaScript (Node.js), Python, Ruby, Java, C#, or other object-oriented programming language
- 1-2 years+ web frontend development experience with jQuery, or equivalent experience in React, Angular, or other JavaScript framework
- 1-2 years+ experience with HTML and CSS
- 1-2 years+ experience with SQL
- Strong communication skills with the ability to interact effectively with a wide variety of personalities
- Ability to work within a team environment
- Must be organized and self-reliant
- Must work well under pressure
- Must be a U.S. Citizen