MISSISSIPPI RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

RULE 78. MOTION PRACTICE

Each court shall establish procedures for the prompt dispatch of business, at which motions requiring notice and hearing may be heard and disposed of; but the judge at any time or place and on such notice, if any, as he considers reasonable may make orders for the advancement, conduct, and hearing of actions.

To expedite its business, the court may make provision by rule or order for the submission and determination of motions ~~not seeking final judgment~~ without oral hearing upon brief written statements of reasons in support and opposition.

[Amended effective March 1, 1989; amended effective April 17, 2003 to allow the courts, by rule to provide for determination of motions seeking final judgment without oral argument.]

Advisory Committee Historical Note

Effective March 1, 1989, Rule 78 was amended by changing its title to "MOTION PRACTICE" and by abrogating provisions for local rules. 536-538 So. 2d XXXI (West Miss. Cas. 1989).

Comment

Rule 78 requires each court to provide for the manner of submission and determination of motions requiring notice and a hearing.

The second paragraph of the rule permits any court to expedite its business by the adoption of local rules or orders providing for the submission and determination of "motions without oral hearing upon brief written statements of reasons in support and opposition."

Motion practice has been accomplished in numerous ways in Mississippi prior to the adoption of these rules. For an idea of the variety of practices in the courts See, e. g., Local Rule I.C. -- E., Sixth Chancery Court District; Local Rule Designating Vacation Day, and Local Rule for Procedures for Vacation Day Hearings in Greenwood, Seventh Chancery Court District; Local Rule 13, Eighth Chancery Court District; Local Rule 2, Seventeenth Chancery Court District; Local Rule 5, Thirteenth Circuit Court District; Local Rule 7(a), Sixteenth Circuit Court District; Local Rule 5, Eighteenth Circuit Court District; Local Rule 8, Bolivar County Court.

Rule 78 does not alter any local rules governing motion practice; however, the rule must be considered in the light of MRCP 83, which requires that all local rules be forwarded to and published by the Supreme Court of Mississippi.

[Comment amended effective March 1, 1989.]
